

Financial Update and a Sneak Peek at 2024

A little country church I served was unable to pay their denominational support, then called apportionments, for many years. These are the funds that support the broader ministries of our denomination like hospitals, universities, orphanages and more. The church set up a plan to try to achieve this payment, a little at a time. Within two years, we were fulfilling the request. By December we were still on track. At Christmas, the Lay Leader said he wanted to drive the final check to the District office and hand it to the Superintendent personally.

I did not anticipate the level of emotions that would accompany this moment. The Lay Leader cried as he handed the check to the Superintendent. They were tears of joy. He was proud of what they had accomplished. The next Sunday he shared with the congregation what he had done and there was applause.

Recalling that day makes me proud to say that First UMC was able to pay our denominational support in full in 2023. It is something for which we should be very proud. Those financial gifts support a lot of great ministries.

As we go into 2024, it remains our goal to pay our apportionments (now called the Tithe) in full. But every year around this time, we are anxious. Every year, we build a budget that has a significant shortfall between income and expenses. We call it our faith gap. Every year, this gap is covered, but it makes us (me) anxious. Sometimes this shortage is met by unexpected gifts. Sometimes through unexpected shortfalls in expenses.

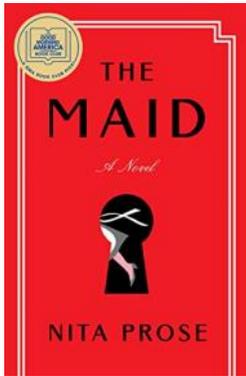

Entering this new year, I want to begin with the congratulations for the many ways we were able to work together to fund the ministries of First UMC and beyond. There are many items not reflected in the budget like Love a Child, UMCOR and other mission appeals that were filled with generosity. For that, I am deeply grateful and proud. As we look at the faith gap for 2024, if you haven't yet made a pledge, doing so will help our planning (and ease the anxiety.) And finally, I have had several folks ask about resuming Smorgasbord. I think it is time, but I have had a difficult time finding volunteers to lead it. We need to act soon. If you would be willing to do this, please let me know. Along with having an impact upon our budgeted income, it is an important part of our service and connection to one another.

Thank you for all you have done in 2023 and blessings for all that awaits in 2024.

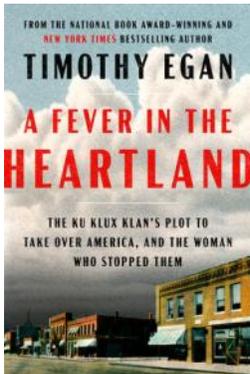

Pace bene (peace and all good things),

Howard

Our Church Family

The church mourns the loss of Shirley Carter.

Thank you to everyone that helped make the Christmas Eve morning and evening services a success. From everyone that played a part in making the services happen to the people attending the services and everything in between and behind the scenes. It takes a lot of work and a lot of people to make it happen, and we couldn't have done it without everyone's help. So thank you, and Happy New Year!

Bible Study

The weeknight Bible study resumes on Tuesday, January 9th at 6:30pm. We will be studying Paul's first letter to the church at Corinth and how it relates to the present day issues facing the church. We will be in the Blue Room for this six-week study.

New Brown Bag Lunch and Conversation

Beginning in 2024, we are going to offer a monthly Brown Bag lunch and conversation. This will be an opportunity to share lunch and conversation. Along with the time for fellowship, we will be inviting speakers to come and talk about various topics. The first luncheon will be on Wednesday, January 17th at noon in the Fellowship Hall. Rev. Boles will be speaking about the importance of friendships. All are welcome to attend!

Cookie Walk

The 2023 Annual Cookie Walk was the best ever raising over $4,000 to support the Women in Faith Missions.

As I sat down to write this thank you, I thought of a football team. There is a quarterback, the leader, but where would he be with no team? Nowhere. So, as chairman of the Cookie Walk, I would like to thank my team. First, the organizers, second, the generous bakers, third, the buyers, and lastly, the community in which we live that comes out to support our cause.

Hope to see you again next year—the Saturday before Thanksgiving.

Thank you everyone to a most successful year.

Sue Romine, Chairman

Day of Service

Jesus said that true greatness is found in the willingness to serve others. On the Day of Service, First UMC shows a quiet greatness offering comfort and care throughout the community.

Learning Tree Preschool

Thank you to everyone that purchased Amazon and Wal-Mart gift cards for Hot Meals, Just Friends and Turning Point. Learning Tree Preschool received a portion of the proceeds from these sales and our Love-A-Child Scholarship will benefit.

On Monday, December 4th Lisa McHone donated Mr. Paul's Christmas tree. Each class made decorations for the tree and decorated it beautifully.

We would like to thank the Tech Team for helping make our Christmas Program a success. Their hard work does not go unnoticed within our Preschool.

Our pets are a blessing to us with love and kindness. What a joy it is to get to return that blessing as a church!
